PEEWEEES TAKE CROWN LUMBER CUP WIN 5-1 OVER ACME IN CALGARY

BEISEKER—Beiseker Peewees climaxed a successful hockey season with a convincing 5-1 win over Acme in the Stampede Corral in Calgary on April 9.

Three bus loads of supporters made the trip to Calgary to see their favorites take the honors in the league final against Acme.

Donnie Schmaltz scored for Beiseker in the first two minutes of play. A minute later, Floyd Berreth put Beiseker ahead 2-0. There was no more scoring in the first period. In the second period Acme outscored Beiseker 1-0; but the Beiseker squad came roaring back in the third period with three goals off the sticks of Mattie Schmaltz, Raymond Berreth and brother Floyd.

In an impressive ceremony after the game, Captain Donnie Schmaltz accepted the cup from league president, John Siempko. This peewee team deserves high praise, for they have played a full season without a single defeat.

Wheat Club Members Receive Seed Grain

BEISEKER — The Beiseker Wheat Club has a good start for the spring season. Each member has received his four bushels of Registered Seed Grain, and his Plot Folder, and all that remains at the present time is to sow his seed plot.

The slogan adopted this year is, "Keep the farm in the family by keeping the family on the farm." In order to carry out and apply this aim, the co-operation of both the parents and their children is required.

Boys and girls are more likely to stay on the farm if their parents are interested in them being in farm clubs.

Oil Company Reaches 5,800 Foot Level

LEVEL LAND—Socony-Entice No. 1 is drilling at a depth of 5,800 feet in the Madison Line. Coring and testing in the upper Madison last week showed a recovery of 60 feet of oil-cut mud in one test. Drilling is continuing to the Devonian formation.

John Leiske wishes to thank the contributors to the Red Cross Drive in his territory for their loyalty. Everyone did so well, and there were only three persons in the district who did not contribute.

Pastor Striffling was guest speaker at the S.D.A. Church on April 14.

Harvey Bechtold and Reg Huether were week-end visitors at the homes of their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Borden Fisher and Naida Gimbel were visiting the Gimbel's over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Sayer were week-end visitors in the Level Land district.

Gordon Suelzler and Lois Fuller and Delores Bulher, all attending Canadian Union College, were week-end visitors in the Level district.

It was nice last Saturday that the S.D.A. Group could all meet. It has been the first time in a long while, as the roads have dried up pretty well.

Canada's Prosperity

Interest created over the new federal budget poses a suitable occasion to review Canada's whole economic situation.

The outstanding feature of current economic trends is the shift from a peacetime to a defence economy. This shift is a cold fact that can't be ignored and our thinking must be adjusted to face the events arising from such a situation.

According to estimates in Finance Minister Abbott's new budget, Canada should end the fiscal year with a surplus of $30,000,000. Actually it may turn out to be much larger than this as last year Canada budgeted for a $15,000,000 surplus and ended up with $203,000,000 in the kitty.

These surpluses show that despite ever-increasing expenditures on defence, the Canadian government is in a sound financial position.

Industry Busy

Canada's industrial corporations appear to be in a prosperous position. Although certain materials are in short supply for civilian production, manufacturers are keeping the wheels of industry humming with new defence contracts.

Employment is at a high level, and will probably be higher before the year is out.

On the farms the outlook is not quite so bright. Farm income dropped 25 per cent during the past year. Food production is one item that is not seriously influenced by the defence economy, and if production on the farms continues to rise food prices should drop. This is good for urban Canada but bad for rural Canada.

It is particularly bad for rural Canada because while prices of rural products will decline, manufactured goods will probably continue to become more expensive.

The working class still comprises the largest segment of Canada's population. Actually, the working class includes everybody that works for anybody else, no matter what their line of work might be.

Inflation Threat

The trend toward inflation that is becoming more evident day by day poses as serious a threat to Canada's welfare as does any foreign aggressor. No one will dispute our contention that a nation must be internally strong to meet any external threat.

Rising living costs and an increasing taxation burden are making it more and more difficult for the average Canadian to make ends meet. It is particularly menacing for the many thousands on meagre pensions of various kinds.

However, it must be admitted that on the whole Canadians are more prosperous than ever before in history. Bank savings are at a record peak, new homes are rising everywhere, and more people are driving more cars than ever before.

But nevertheless, the prosperity that this country has been enjoying may soon become a thing of the past if certain dangerous trends are not halted.

We may find ourselves in a depression of prosperity—a depression wherein everybody's working but nobody's able to keep on their feet. This could include business corporations, big and small, as well as the masses of wage-earners.

The new federal budget certainly isn't going to make it any easier on us. But the government needs money and can only get it through taxation.

With the new 20 per cent tax on income tax, and the raising of sales tax from eight to 10 per cent, the cost of living will register a sharp jump in the months ahead.

Price Controls Now!

The government's policy in fighting inflation—it admits inflation is becoming more of a threat every week—is to reduce purchasing power through higher taxes, curbs on credit buying, and other measures.

We think this will cause too great a hardship because the end does not justify the means. Prices may eventually come down but meanwhile extreme hardships might be our lot.

It is admitted the new federal budget is, on the whole, a just one. It is also admitted it will push the cost of living still higher than it is now.

We think the new federal budget is one more sign of how urgently price controls are needed. It is one more reason why serious consideration should be given to immediate reimposition of price controls.

The Battle Of The Fertilizers

By T. W. PUE

Something new has been added to the Canadian fertilizer market, Liquid Fertilizer. I've heard some condemn liquid fertilizer as practically useless. On the other hand, I've heard first hand praise for the product by farmers who have tried it. Who is right?

Well, like any other controversial subject, both sides may be right and both may be wrong. I think the farmer who does not try it for himself may be more wrong than anyone. But information about liquid fertilizer is lacking to most growers and I here submit some notes we managed to pick up on the subject.

USED IN HOLLAND

The current interest of the Canadian farmer in liquid fertilizer has sound historical and scientific background.

In European countries like Holland, where crop areas are small and yields high, heavy use of liquid fertilizer or liquid manure is made. In China, productivity has been maintained for centuries through use of liquid manure.

Pioneer research work on liquid fertilizers, as we know them today, was done in 1931 by Dr. Victor A. Tiedjens and Professor Lyman G. Schermerhorn of the New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station at Rutgers, N.J. Their purpose was to provide a more efficient, more economical method of using fertilizer materials, and their approach was that of the plant physiologist who studies the growth and functioning of plants.

Fertilizers are used to supply plant nutrients which the crop cannot get from the soil. Professor Wallace S. Moreland, Rutgers University states: "UNFORTUNATELY the nutrients in dry fertilizers cannot be used in the form they are applied since PLANTS only ABSORB FOODS which are DISSOLVED. Thus, during dry weather you may have plenty of fertilizer in the dry soil, but it is in no sense available to the plant. An adequate supply of water is the key that unlocks plant food in ordinary dry fertilizer."

LIQUID PLANT FOOD provides the nutrient elements that a plant requires, in the proportion the plant needs, already dissolved, thus making nutrients IMMEDIATELY AVAILABLE. This is especially important in early, critical stages of plant life, for, instead of lying dormant waiting for rain, the plant obtains natural growth.

RESEARCH IN ENGLAND

Further research by Dr. W. O. Roberts of East Malling, Kent, England, and Dr. K. Starr Chester of the Battelle Memorial Institute, Columbus, Ohio, amongst others, demonstrated the practical benefit of treating seed grain with liquid fertilizer to conserve valuable fertilizer materials; to assist healthy, early growth; to encourage earlier emergence, longer growing season, earlier maturity. Practical use by thousands of farmers on large acreages has confirmed these findings.

Seed treatment with liquid plant food enables the farmer to KNOW that a FAIR SHARE OF NUTRIENTS IS AVAILABLE to EACH PLANT AT THE START. Additional nutrients can be supplied to the crop by top dressing with liquid plant food during various phases of growth. Ordinary spraying equipment can be used reducing the farmers investment in expensive equipment. Weed sprays and liquid fertilizer, applied in the same operation, save time and labor.

Free Thought

History reveals that often, in the progress of mankind, conceptions of error have been generally and generously accepted and believed.

The commonly-accepted notion about many things may be demonstrated, through the years, to be incorrect and erroneous. We may take some comfort in the thought, at this time in the life of the human race, that in the more intelligent countries the people are less superstitious and ignorant than ever before in the history of the world.

In its own mysterious way, truth will eventually establish itself. Regardless of the artificial support given error, the sifting process continues to reject and renounce false beliefs and ideas.

The progress of the future is linked to freedom of thought and freedom of speech. Those who believe in progress and truth should vigorously oppose any effort to curb the right of man to formulate his own thoughts and to express them freely to others.

The Bible Says:

And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall heap dust, and take it.—Habokuk 1:10.

The assault on Christianity is being continued by the men in the Kremlin. Moscow is trying to stamp out the Czech Catholic church in a prelude to further assaults on religion.

Voice of the People

"VOX POPULI, VOX DEI"

OLD AGE PENSIONS

Dear Sir—There is agitation for a universal old age pension to be paid partly by the federal government and partly by the provincial government. At the same time there is a move afoot to allow the provinces to increase their revenue by having the federal government change the BNA Act so that the provinces can apply a hidden tax on retail sales. It is even suggested the hidden turnover tax might finance the provinces share of the old age pension payments.

How paradoxical can you get? It is impossible to think of a more effective way to negate pension payments than by the imposition of a hidden sales tax. Not only would the tax itself bite into pension dollars in a most alarming way, but the cumulative effect that such a tax would bring about in helping to raise the whole cost of living would be unbearable.

Can even the most cynical politician keep a smile of his face while he holds out a pension promise with one hand if he cold-bloodedly is planning to bludgeon the recipient with the other? Calgary MINE'S NEAR DUE.

CHILDREN DENIED

Dear Sir—My heart is broken whenever I read of some child being abandoned, abused, or even murdered by some parent who doesn't want children. Yet, I and my husband, who both want a child so bad, can't have one. We're going to try and adopt one and he or she will certainly get the best of treatment. Edmonton. SUBSCRIBER.

LIKES LOCAL NEWS

Dear Sir: I've been reading your paper for over a year now and I'm very satisfied because it brings so much hometown news to me here in Calgary. Many of my friends haven't been to my hometown, but they all enjoy your paper. Calgary. BILL DANYLUK.

IT'S HIS OPINION

Dear Sir—The Catholic church doesn't stand for religious freedom. Pope Leo XII said the Protestant Bible is the "Gospel of the Devil" and Pope Gregory XVI said "we condemn the publication, distribution and reading of books of the Holy Scriptures translated into the vulgar tongue." Hughenden V. T. G. TWIGG.

IN THE NUDE

Dear Sir: I see where western farm groups have gone to Ottawa again in search of a "final wheat payment". It's just another useless joy-ride. The farmer is losing his britches and soon, like the Doukhobor, will be in the nude unless those swelled-headed bums are ditched.

TOM L. POULSON. Rochfort Bridge.

MARICLE A TRAITOR?

Dear Sir: That "Reader" who wrote to the Voice column asking if Frank Maricle shouldn't be considered a true patriot doesn't know what it's all about. Sure, Mr. Maricle is a very nice man and he probably wants peace just as all people do. But anybody who attended the Communist World Peace Congress in Warsaw is a traitor to his country.

Why? Because the Communists don't want peace. Stalin wrote in his book that "the epoch of world revolution has begun... (we) should stand up against the capitalist world... raising revolts against the capitalists... even with armed forces against their governments."

To Stalin, peace means conquest.

Dear Sir: I really enjoy your paper. Keep up the good work.

Provincial Government Refuses to Report On Alberta Child Welfare Situation

Alberta government will not present a report on child welfare as requested by the Liberal Party here, it was learned this week.

Liberal members of the legislature had requested a "full, complete and exhaustive report" from minister of public welfare Dr. Cross on the measures taken by the government to implement recommendations of the royal commission on child welfare.

The child welfare report of three years ago contained 23 recommendations. The Liberal members asked to know the government's reasons for failure to carry out some of these recommendations.

Harper Prowse, provincial Liberal leader, told this paper that government members said they agreed with some of the royal commission's recommendations and had implemented them, but would ignore those recommendations it wasn't in agreement with.

Across-border adoptions made last year by the welfare agencies of the provincial government in defiance of the recommendations of the royal commission were strongly deplored by the provin-

ALBERTA JAIL TO GET O.K.

A bill to clear the way for Alberta's proposal to establish a reformatory for juvenile offenders at Bowden has been entered in the House of Commons, Ottawa.

Justice Minister Garson placed on the Commons order paper this week a notice he would bring in an act to amend the Prisons and Reformatories Act to clear way for establishment of the new institution.

The act applies to provincial and local penal institutions.

cial chapter of the IODE at a convention last week in Calgary.

A resolution to this effect will go to the minister of health and welfare, Mrs. P. P. Griffith, Edmonton, provincial president, told delegates that in the recent report of the welfare department laid before the provincial legislature a certain number of across-border and even out-of-Canada adoptions were indicated.

"This is in direct contravention to the findings of the royal commission. I feel we should deplore this disregard, for children thus adopted have not the protection that those adopted within our borders have. The royal commission declared such adoptions to be not in the national interests."

Alberta Coal Shipments To East Discontinued

Shipments of coal to eastern markets from its mines in Alberta have been halted because of increased freight rates, officials of Canadian Collieries said this week.

The rate boosts, which run as high as $2.35 a ton on coal moving from Alberta to Toronto, are removing the last big profitable market from the western mines.

Western Coal Federation, which has been battling the proposed new freight rate structure for several months, reports that the rail lines have now put the boosts into effect. This threatens all western mining operations, which employ more than 10,000 men.

STRONG PROTEST MADE HERE

Strong protests from Alberta labor unions and other organizations are being made against the high rates coal producers are forced to pay in shipping their coal east via the railways.

Western coal miners had been able to lay down coal in eastern markets in growing amounts recently, and had hoped they would be able to start to compete against American imports in that area. Eastern Canada brings in about $250,000,000 in U.S. coal each year.

"We have now discontinued our shipments because of the new rates," an official of Canadian Collieries said this week.

The railways, who claimed they had been losing money on the coal haul, also threaten to add further boosts to coal rates next year.

Any decision on the matter will come under jurisdiction of Mines Minister Geo. Prudham.

RATS IN ALBERTA

A colony of rats was located on a farm near Alsask last summer. It was quickly eradicated. This was the first evidence in the history of this province that rats had actually reached Alberta. Colonies of this pest have been known just across the east boundary in Saskatchewan. There is a definite threat to this province.

The Norway rat has now been declared a pest under the Agricultural Pests Act. It is therefore the responsibility of every person in this province to destroy rats on his own premises. Furthermore, it requires that every municipality, town and village shall appoint a pest control officer to insure that individuals are accepting their responsibility.

Because rat invasion is threatening Alberta, we must be prepared to fight the battle successfully. Moving pictures are available and have been shown in three areas in this municipality. So that you may be able to identify this pest accurately, samples pickled in alcohol are available for study. They are the real thing so you cannot mistake them.

Any person who kills a rat or suspects the presence of rats must report this information to his local pest officer, or the District Agriculturist.

Various methods of control will be adapted to each particular case whenever rats may be found. The local pest officer together with the District Agriculturist wherever possible may instruct and apply approved control methods.

Mrs. Wald and Mrs. Wright wish to thank all those who donated blood, and also all those who assisted in any way to make this clinic such a splendid success.

The lightest wood of any Canadian tree species is the eastern cedar. This weighs about 19 lbs. per cubic foot, oven-dry weight. Heaviest wood is white oak which weighs about 49 lbs. per cubic foot.

Plan of Scheme of the Proposed "Calgary Rural Municipal Hospital District"

In accordance with the provisions of The Municipal Hospitals' Act R.S.A. 1942, a request was received on April 15th, 1946, by the Minister of Health at Edmonton, asking that a Municipal Hospital District be established to include the territory described below:

In compliance with this request, the Minister of Health established "The Calgary Rural Municipal Hospital District" on April 18th, 1946, approved the appointment of a Provisional Board and instructed it to prepare a plan for providing Hospital accommodation for ratepayers of the said district, in accordance with the Municipal Hospitals' Act.

The Provisional Hospital Board met on April 9th, 1951, and prepared the plan outlined below in accordance with the Municipal Hospitals' Act. Answer:

I think you would lay yourself open to criticism if you had an elaborate tea so soon after your father's death. If it were just a small party for a few intimate friends, it might be different.

I usually think that each person has to judge those things for himself, as it really boils down to how he, himself, feels about it. Can't you wait a few months? The brides will probably enjoy it just as much later on.

LOUISA.

Dear Louisa—My son told me a few days ago that he thought the present day wives managed their work so much better than we women did twenty years ago.

I agreed with him, but I added that if we could have stacked dishes in a dishwasher and thrown all the soiled clothes in a washing machine, instead of heating water on a wood stove and doing all the actual work of scrubbing, lifting pails of water and keeping a fire going, we would have managed better, too.

Don't you agree with me?

SIXTY.

Answer:

I was one of those brides without conveniences, too. And although I live in a warmer state than you do, I depended on open grate fires for heat and a kerosene stove in the kitchen for cooking.

I doubt if many of the girls today would feel so full of pep at the end of the day, if they had to cope with the hardships and inconveniences we older ones looked upon as necessary evils.

LOUISA.

Farmers' Union to Appeal For Sand, Gravel Rights

The Farmers' Union of Alberta will appeal the sand and gravel court case involving two Edmonton district farmers, according to Henry Young, president.

Last year an oil company brought suit against two Edmonton district farmers who had gravel pits on their land, claiming that the sand and gravel went with the mineral rights. In spite of the apparent absurdity and injustice of this claim, the judge awarded the gravel to the oil company.

This means that the farmers in question lose their rights to the sand and gravel on their land, and that they still will have to pay the oil company for all the gravel sold from the pits in question since they were started. If this is allowed to stand, it may affect the rights of farmers in many parts of the province.

The provincial government has felt so disturbed by the court's decision that they have enacted a law that in future all sand and gravel shall belong to the owner of the surface. The government is to be commended upon their action but it is uncertain whether this law will cover the many cases where mineral rights were alienated long ago. This can only be decided by a test case taken to the highest court in Canada.

As the interests of many farmers are involved, the Farmers' Union has decided to appeal this case. This will involve heavy expense as it is altogether probable that the case will have to be carried to the Supreme Court of Canada. A fund is therefore being opened at the Farmers' Union Office and an appeal is being made to all farmers to send contributions to this fund as soon as possible.

NEW ROYAL BANK BUILDING NEARS COMPLETION IN BEISEKER

BEISEKER — With the recent installation of the latest type of counter fittings, and the arrival of their furniture this week, the interior of the new Royal Bank branch building in Beiseker is finally complete. A few weeks ago, K. A. Wright, the manager, and his staff moved into their brand new quarters, complete with all the records, files and ledgers, from the temporary premises they had been occupying since last August in the show-room of the Louis Garage Limited while construction of the new building was underway. Although at that time the new fixtures were not quite ready, Mr. Wright felt that the added conveniences of the new quarters more than justified the move.

Work has been progressing for some months under the direction of E. C. Chandler, Jr., Contractor, and now that the noise has died down and the dust settled, the building has emerged as one of the best designed banking centres in the district.

Brightness and space keynote the interior which incorporates many of the latest innovations in branch bank design. Modern fluorescent lighting gives the office a bright, sunny appearance, and the finished result is an office fully in step with the times, fresh as a daisy, cheerful and friendly as the smiling girls who look after your cheques and overdrafts. For customers who seek inexpensive protection for their private papers, documents and valuable, there is a modern safety deposit vault of the latest design.

Mr. Wright and his staff are, of course, very happy about their new premises, and especially over the fact that they are now able to provide an even faster service than before. "I am most grateful to the public for their forbearance during the past few months when we were occupying somewhat inadequate quarters. My staff and I have enjoyed welcoming all our many friends and customers in our new building during these past few weeks, and now that our new counter fittings and furniture have been installed, I know they will find it more pleasant than ever to bank with the Royal."

Established in Beiseker over 40 years ago, this branch of the Royal Bank is one of more than 750 branches throughout Canada and abroad. In common with other

K. A. WRIGHT, Manager of The Royal Bank of Canada's branch at Beiseker, the interior of whose new branch building is now complete with the installation of new counter fittings and furniture. Mr. Wright, who has been Manager of the branch since 1947, came to Beiseker from the Camrose branch of the Royal Bank.

Canadian banks, the Royal is not a big bank with branches; the branches themselves are the bank. Through the Beiseker branch, the people of this district have available the complete services of the whole institution, for behind it are the full resources of the bank, not only financial but also the brains, experience and judgment of specialists and senior officers. Because of this essential character, the Royal Bank provides Beiseker and the surrounding district with a modern, efficient and complete banking service, readily available at all times to meet the needs of this growing and progressive district.

Associated with Mr. Wright on the staff of the branch are Miss D. Brosteaux, Miss F. Togstad, Miss D. M. Hagel and Mr. J. T. Hagel.

Leonard Schmaltz Leaves For Montreal

BEISEKER—Leonard Schmaltz left Beiseker last Friday for Montreal, where he was to report Monday to take a three months' flying training course from the TCA. He will spend two months in Montreal, and then the last month wherever planes are available. Possibly he may take this month in Calgary, or it may be that he will remain in Montreal. We hope that he will be sent to Calgary so that we will see him once in awhile! At present Leonard has his commercial license, and after this course he will be a go-pilot.

Mr. and Mrs. Sebastian Usselman moved back to the farm this week, after spending the winter in town.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Felix G. Schmaltz, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Heidrick, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bosch and Mr. and Mrs. Bob O'Toole, Stettler, on the birth of baby daughters recently.

Bert Day proved himself a real gentleman this past week in delivering bills around town due to an error in the mailing name on the envelope. Possibly they picked on good nature, or was it because they considered he had ample time for such trivial matters. At any rate, the business people might be

When you add it all up...

WHEN you consider the men, women and money needed to operate 3,700 branches—you see what is involved in looking after the greatly increased demands made by busy Canadians upon their chartered banks.

In ten years... with bigger staffs and higher wages, payrolls have jumped from $40 million a year to $102 million

... taxes, federal, provincial and municipal, have risen from $9.5 million to $20.7 million a year

... interest paid to depositors has increased from $22 million to $57.8 million a year.

And these are only three of many expense items. Yes, today more than ever, it costs money to run a bank.
